Dear Sir,

In connection with the visit to Mysore of His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester in June last, the Chief Justice had gone on invitation to Mysore. As the Chief Justice performed the journey to and fro by road in his own car, a travelling allowance bill claiming the usual rates as for journeys on tour was prepared and sent for audit. The Comptroller has disallowed a sum of Rs.9-11-0 mentioning G.O.No.330/C.B., dated 24-7-1942, as his authority for the disallowance. A copy of the Comptroller's memo is enclosed. May I request you kindly to obtain sanction of the Government for the T.A. claimed as it was necessary for the Chief Justice to take his car for his use at Mysore.
